

“Asphalt Pavement Design Seminar”

Current Technology, New Developments, & Ongoing Research

Program Topics: This seminar will provide an overview of asphalt pavement design. Current CDOT asphalt pavement design procedures will be presented and case study examples explained. Guidance on local agency pavement design will be provided. Work CDOT is doing on a new Mechanistic Empirical Pavement Design Guide (MEPDG) will be discussed with overview information on Perpetual Pavement designs.

Presenters:

Jay Goldbaum, CDOT Pavement Design Program Manager
Damon Thomas, CTL/Thompson
Jim Noll, Kumar & Associates

When: Wednesday, September 29, 2010
8:30am – 9:00am Refreshments & Check In
9:00am – 2:00pm, Lunch will be provided

Where: Rocky Mountain Asphalt Education Center, 6880 S. Yosemite Ct., Suite 110 Centennial, CO 80112 Phone: (303) 741-6150 X 154

Who Should Attend: This forum is intended for agency and consulting engineers involved in pavement design

RSVP Today! To attend; complete the RSVP form on reverse (Names & Organization) send via e-mail to rmaec@co-asphalt.com, fax to 303-741-6146 or mail to RMAEC, 6880 South Yosemite CT, Suite 110, Centennial, CO 80112

$25 – CAPA, CDOT, CAGE, APWA-Colorado Chapter, CARSE members

$50 – Non Member of above groups

5 hrs. of Professional Development Hour's (PDU)/Continuing Education Units (CEU) available (requests for hour documentation need to be made directly to Diane at the RMAEC)

Sponsored by:

In Cooperation with

