Contributions from corporations, foreign nationals and federal government contractors are prohibited. Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer of each individual whose contributions exceed $200 in an election cycle. Contributions are not deductible for federal income tax purposes.

The maximum contribution per individual to Joe O'Dea for Senate is $2,900 for the primary and $2,900 for the general election. A couple may write a check for up to $5,800 for the primary and up to $5,800 for the general election from a joint account (where both names are listed on the account) if this form is completed and signed by both contributors. Contributions must be drawn on a personal, not corporate account. A multi-candidate federal PAC may contribute $5,000 for the primary and $5,000 for the general election.

Paid for by Joe O'Dea for Senate.
